Tour de Bintan is ranked 19th in the world, and is one of the two Asia bike races that serves as the qualification round of the UCI Gran Fondo World Championships. The bike race is famous for its stunning scenic routes of coastal landscapes, lush green forests, and epic villages. There are three courses made for both competitive cyclists and recreational cyclists. Tour de Bintan is an annual event that has been held for 7 years and is one of the tickets from a series of qualifications from UCI Gran Fondo World. This is the only UCI GF Series in Indonesia and is participated by cyclists from around the globe. In 2018, Indonesia aims to invite as many as 4,000 foreign cyclists and audiences from 41 nationalities.
